Pak's plan for Massive Infiltration in Jammu and Kashmir

2715. SHRI O.P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to. the news-item published in the Statesman, dated the 13th November, 1998 captioned "Massive infiltration planned in Jammu and Kashmir.";

(b) whether by organising a large scale infiltration of armed mercenaries into Jammu and Kashmir, Pakistan is planning to create a situation similar to that of 1965 in the State when it had sent thousands of armed infiltrators into the State to spread violence leading to a war in the sub-continent; and

(c) if so, Government's reaction there to and emergency measures being taken to counter this potential threat?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) While it is true that Pakistan have been continously trying to infiltrate terrorists including foreign mercenaries into Jammu & Kashmir to keep up the level of militancy, there is, however, no authentic information about their having any plan of starting a war in the subcontinent.

(c).The Government have adopted a multi-pronged approach to tackle infiltration on the border which includes inter-alia, strengthening the border management, gearing up intelligence machinery, improved interaction with border population, setting up of outposts of security forces, constituting Village Defence Committees, modernisation and upgradation of police and security forces with advanced/sophisticated weapons and communication systems etc.
